This matter is currently set for a detention hearing on November 26, 2013. The parties hereby stipulate to vacate that date and reset the hearing for December 18, 2013. The parties are requesting this to allow them time review the discovery and explore possible resolutions to the case.

The defendant and the government consent to the extension of time, and the parties represent that good cause exists for this extension, including the effective preparation of counsel. See 18 U.S.C. §3161(h)(7)(B)(iv). The parties also agree that the ends of justice are served by

1 granting an extension and that an exclusion of time outweighs the best interests of the public and
2 the defendant in a speedy trial. See 18 U.S.C. §3161(h)(7)(A).

11 ORDER

12 For the reasons stated above, the Court sets Wednesday, December 18, 2013, at the hour
13 of 9:30 a.m., as the date for detention hearing. The court also finds that the exclusion of this 14 period from the time limits applicable under 18 U.S.C. §3161 is warranted, and that the ends of 15 justice served by the continuance outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in the 16 prompt disposition of this criminal case; and that the failure to grant the requested exclusion of 17 time would deny counsel for the defendant and for the government the reasonable time necessary
18 for effective preparation and continuity of counsel, taking into account the exercise of due
19 diligence, and would result in a miscarriage of justice. See 18 U.S.C. §3161(h)(7)(B)(iv).

20 IT IS SO ORDERED.
